

Odell Cousar

January 9, 1953 - June 3, 2012

Odell Cousar, 59, passed peacefully at home on Sunday, June 3, 2012. Born, reared and educated in Chester, SC, he served in the US Army during the Vietnam War. Before becoming disabled, he was employed by Stephenson Flowers, Harrisburg. Odell had a special sense of humor, listening ear and compassionate heart. He was instrumental in encouraging young people, helping those in need and imparting joy in any situation. His interests included chess, cards and gospel music, especially, the Canton Spirituals.

He was preceded in death by his father, George Cousar Sr.; son, Anthony Davis; mother-in-law, Mary Jane Dunbar; sisters-in-law, Jerrilyn Cofield and Patricia Dunbar. He leaves to celebrate his life and cherish special memories his devoted wife of 18 years, Gilinda Cousar whom he affectionately called "Nookie" and who lovingly cared for him throughout his illness; son, Patrick Davis (Julia) of SC; step-son, Robert Epps of Harrisburg; his mother, Marie Cousar; 3 brothers, George, Jerry and Elvis Cousar; 3 sisters, Azalee Cousar (Henry), Lahoma Cousar, all of SC, Anne Warren (Erwin) of NJ; in-laws, Terrian Lawrence, Theran, Phillip and Jeffrey Dunbar (Valerie) and Kara Jones (William), all of Harrisburg; 7 grandchildren, uncles, aunts, nieces, nephews and friends.

Funeral service will be privately held at the convenience of the family.

Professional services entrusted to Wallace Funeral Directors. wallacefd.com