

Mr. Oliver Wesley Evans Jr.

January 31, 1948 - June 15, 2017

Oliver Wesley Evans Jr., son of the late Oliver Wesley Evans Sr. and Clara Evans, was born Saturday, January 31, 1948, in Middletown, PA.

He attended Steelton-Highspire High School and later successfully completed his General Educational Development requirements. Employed by the Harrisburg Housing Authority, he was also an independent contractor. He loved doing odd jobs and everyone has a piece of his work. He played semi-pro football and was the first person to be enlisted in the PA Job Corps. Very family oriented, his special interests included sports, especially the Philadelphia Eagles, cooking, cards, riddles, word searches, and he had a passion for the fictional superhero, "Superman," because he came to earth in the same year he was born.

At sixty-nine years of age, he completed his earthly journey on Thursday, June 15, 2017, joining in eternal life his parents, his brother, Dennis Evans Sr., and his nephew, Dennis Evans Jr.

Many very special, irreplaceable memories will be cherished and shared by his wife, Paula Evans; his children, Stephan Drayton, Dana Drayton, Kamice Fleming, William Jones, Olivia Evans, Antwain Price; his siblings, Gail Oakley (Douglas), Deborah Cunningham (Mike), Charles Evans (Nancy), Connie Cox, Barbara Evans, William Evans, Valerie Evans, Jeffrey Evans, Larry Evans, Glen Evans, Charlotte Evans and Juwan Jones. His memory will also be honored by his eleven grandchildren, other family members and friends.
