

Pamela Steptoe

March 20, 1948 - March 18, 2024

In loving memory of our cherished mother, grandmother, who embodied the essence of love, care, and generosity. She was a beacon of light in our lives, her warmth and kindness touching everyone she encountered.

With a heart filled with love, she worked tirelessly, her hands creating culinary delights that nourished both body and soul. Her passion for travel took her to far-off lands, but her greatest journey was the one she shared with her family and her beloved Bible, finding solace and inspiration within its pages.

A devoted member of the United Baptist Church, she found strength and community in her faith, always ready to share her love of God with others. Family was her cornerstone, especially her great-grandchildren, whom she adored beyond measure. Her love knew no bounds, whether gathered around the table for a friendly game of cards, where she imparted the skill of spades to each generation, or extending a helping hand to anyone in need, giving selflessly without hesitation.

As she ascends to the heavens, we find comfort in knowing that she is reunited with her beloved father, Thomas Robertson, mother, Grace Robinson, and husband, Odell Ashford, enveloped in their embrace once more. Though she may be gone from our sight, her spirit lives on in the hearts of her children, Amanda, Patrick, Vanessa, her numerous grandchildren, great-grandchildren, sister, Mary Thompson, brothers, Sam and Keith Robinson, nieces, nephews, and a multitude of friends and loved ones whose lives she touched with her boundless love.

Heaven has gained a radiant angel, and we can imagine her dancing among the stars, her laughter echoing through the celestial realms. Rest in eternal peace, dear grandmother, your legacy of love will forever illuminate our lives.

“ Reflecting on the passing of Ms. Pam brings back cherished memories of our neighborhood on Briggs St. I still vividly recall the excitement of meeting her as a child when she had just relocated from Virginia. Ms. Pam's sweetness and warmth were immediately evident, leaving an mark on all who knew her.

Her spirit extended beyond her own family; she encouraged neighborhood children, including myself, to attend her church, where we sang in the choir and learned about God together. Her unwavering faith and gentle guidance were a beacon of light during our formative years.

To Amanda, Pat, and Vanessa, I offer my deepest condolences. May you find peace in the beautiful memories you shared with your mom. Please know that you are not alone, and take comfort in taking one day at a time as you navigate through this difficult period.
