

Paris C. Mitchell

April 14, 1985 - September 19, 2025

Paris C. Mitchell, daughter of Dorothy Mitchell and James McMillian, was born on Sunday, April 14, 1985, in Harrisburg, Pennsylvania.

Paris was a graduate of William Penn High School. She later found fulfillment in her work with Holy Spirit Hospital Housekeeping, where she enjoyed helping others and building connections with those around her.

Paris was a woman of many talents and passions. She loved to cook delicious meals, keep a spotless home, sing joyfully, and use her gifted hands to style hair. Above all, her happiest moments were those spent with her family, where her laughter, love, and nurturing spirit left a lasting mark on all who knew her.

On Friday, September 19, 2025, Paris peacefully transitioned from this life in Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, at forty years of age.

Paris leaves to cherish her memory her father, James McMillian; her mother, Dorothy Mitchell; her children, Myron Brooks III, James Queen Jr., and Danaé Johnson Mitchell; her sisters, Imari Mitchell and Shera Mitchell; her brother, Keiwakis Wright; and her cherished nieces and nephews, Jania Queen, Jakya Queen, Jeron Queen, Nino Brown, Naomi Brown, Tamari Staten, Travis Staten, Tahson Staten, Dmarcus Sutton, Ernest Sutton, Zariah Mitchell, Jayden Mitchell, Kyree Wright, Nigel Lane, and Elijah McNeil. She will also be remembered with love by her extended family of cousins, godbrothers, and brothers, along with countless friends who were blessed by her presence.

Paris's life was a reflection of love, creativity, and strength. Her memory will live on in the hearts of her family and all those who had the privilege of knowing her.

Private Services will be held at a later date.
