“ Pat, we have known each other since junior high school. We became friends immediately. We experienced many sadnesses in our lives as well as many happy times. We attended our class reunion a couple of years ago and we laughed and talked about our younger years in school. It was a happy time seeing each other. I relocated to Texas but that didn't make a difference. We continue to call each other on our birthdays kept in touch. We would talk for hours about what's going on with our children and ourselves. Pat, my good friend, you will be greatly missed. Rest In Peace.

“ Mrs. Awotwi was the epitome of a woman who knew God would always see her through. I don't recall one conversation in which she didn't say "I know God has got me." This woman was strength and grace personified no matter what was happening around her. I will always be grateful to her for allowing me to celebrate, grieve, and worship with she and her family throughout the years. Rest well Mrs. Awotwi.

Julia, family know that her strength has enveloped each of you. Her grace will be expressed through you, and through the arts and art. May God comfort you and know the family is with you every moment.

“ Mrs. Pat's life was the example of a servant of God. You truly left an awesome example for us all to follow. I miss you and will never forget you. I will never forget when I needed to find a home for my Cody without thinking about it twice you said I will take him and you took him in and allowed me to come see him anytime I wanted to until we both decided that it was not good for him. Thank you for taking good care of him.
