

Patricia A. Clark-Cooksey

December 23, 1956 - February 6, 2026

Patricia A. Clark-Cooksey, affectionately known as “Tissie,” daughter of the late George William Clark and Emmie V. (Riley) Mraz, was born on December 23, 1956, in Harrisburg, PA.

Patricia received her formal education in the Harrisburg Public School System and graduated from John Harris High School. She was later employed by The Hershey Company, from which she later retired after years of dedicated service. Throughout her life, she embraced adventure and cherished new experiences. She was a member of Zion Assembly Church in Middletown, PA, under the leadership of Pastor Raleigh Wingfield.

Tissie had a deep love for travel. Whether journeying with friends, family, or exploring on her own, she made it her mission to see the world and live life to the fullest. Her adventurous spirit, vibrant personality, and zest for life left lasting memories with everyone fortunate enough to travel beside her.

On Friday, February 6, 2026, at sixty-nine years of age, Patricia peacefully passed into the arms of her Lord and Savior at Harrisburg Hospital, surrounded by her loving family. She was reunited in eternal rest with her beloved parents; her sister, Prudence A. Clark; her brothers, Kevin A. Clark and Ronald Riley; and her cherished great-granddaughter, Aniyah Teckle’.

Patricia leaves to cherish her memory her devoted husband, Leo Cooksey; her loving children, Takeeia Thomas and Rhonda Nelson (David, Sr.); her grandchildren, Natayzia Thomas, David Nelson, Jr., Brittany Nelson, and Brianna Nelson; her great-grandson, Davion Nelson; and a host of extended family members and friends who will forever treasure her love and lasting legacy.

“ What a shock to see Pat's obituary. We grew up in the uptown area and we're co-workers at Hershey. My heart goes out to the family. Her sweet voice will be missed. May she rest peacefully and your heart be comforting, knowing others share in your sorrow 🙏
