~~~~~

“Preserve me, O God: for in thee do I put my trust.
Thou wilt shew me the path of life: in thy presence is fullness of joy;
at thy right hand there are pleasures for evermore.”

Psalm 16:1, 11

Pauline was born Saturday, July 30, 1932, in Harrisburg, PA, daughter of the late James B. Stewart and Eugenia Wilson Stewart.

Pauline graduated from William Penn High School, Class of 1950. She retired from Superior Foods and being an outstanding cook and an ambitious entrepreneur, Pauline owned and operated a restaurant in Steelton, PA, as well as Pauline’s Family Catering Business.

Having accepted Christ as her personal Savior many, many years ago, Pauline was an active, longtime member of Second Baptist Church, Harrisburg, PA, where she served with the Mothers’ Board. Later, she joined in fellowship with the Martin Luther King Baptist Church under the pastorate of her daughter-in-law, Rev. Dr. LaVette Paige. There, she continued her Christian discipleship with the Mothers’ Board, and she and her husband Marcus Sr. were recognized as one of the longest married couples in the church.

A good mother, Pauline adored her sons and doted upon her grandchildren who were a joy to her life. She was a fashion icon; always impeccably dressed. Among her most enjoyable times were entertaining, visiting with her siblings locally and in South Carolina, going to flea markets, and for relaxation going to the race track and playing the slots at Hollywood Casino.

In Harrisburg, on Tuesday, September 6, 2016, surrounded by her loving family, Pauline departed this life joining in eternal life her parents and her sister, Laura Eugenia Butler. Pauline will forever and lovingly be remembered by her husband, Marcus Paige Sr.; four sons, Marcus Paige Jr. and his wife LaVette, Aaron Paige and his wife Miriam, Erick Paige and his wife Yonise and Torran O. Paige and his wife Jaime; eleven grandchildren; five siblings, Veronica Beaden, Ben Stewart, John Stewart, Del Stewart and Paul Stewart; along with a host of other relatives and friends.
