The Obituary

Pearl Mae Purdy

So when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality,
then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written,
Death is swallowed up in victory. O death, where is thy sting?
O grave, where is thy victory? I Corinthians 15:54-55

Pearl Mae Purdy, affectionately known as "Sissy," was born Sunday, April 4, 1926, in Harrisburg, PA, the daughter of Eugene Purdy and Mary E. Cooper Purdy.

Formerly employed by Amp Incorporated, Pearl's pastimes included modeling, dancing, cooking, baking and, especially, conversing with others.

In her eighty-seventh year, while at the Holy Spirit Hospital in Camp Hill, PA, on Saturday, May 4, 2013, Pearl transitioned to life eternal exchanging mortality for immortality. Along with her parents, she was predeceased by one sister, Deborah Purdy.

Blessed to have shared the journey of this devoted mother, grandmother, sister, aunt and friend are her two sons, Ronald Purdy and his wife Carol and Harrison Purdy, all of Harrisburg; her four daughters, Charlene Britton, Veronica Purdy, Yvonne Purdy, Sharon Horne and her husband Tracy, all of Harrisburg; two sisters, Renee Purdy of Harrisburg, Mary Aikens and her husband Robert of York, PA; numerous grandchildren, nieces, nephews and other relatives.

Forever Cherishing Many Special Memories! Submitted by Pearl's Loving Family
