“ Still missing you the pain doesn't go away you're the prettiest star in the sky . Ever since you've left I haven't had a home in a person or even an actual one . You were my whole world and I just wish I could reverse time but I can't and everything I do it for I do it for you . Please guide me through these rough times and protect me I get so happy when I see you in my dreams and I always hope I do and that you guide me in my life . I love you grandma 4 ever my bestfriend 4 ever my mom 4 ever you're here with me .

“ My condolences to the family! I have known Peggy for 25 years now. Her home was the hub of the family. When I would drop off or pick up the kids there was always a steady flow of family in and out of that back door. She gave all she had to her family and I know that she will be dearly missed. Hold on to those wonderful memories and keep the family united- the perfect way to honor your mom, aunt, grandmother, great grandmother, etc.!
