

Peta-Gaye Alorna McFarlane

January 20, 1987 - May 13, 2026

Peta-Gaye Alorna McFarlane, affectionately known to many as “Peta,” was born on January 20, 1987, in Brown’s Town, St. Ann, Jamaica, to Karen Haughton and Peter McFarlane.

Peta-Gaye dedicated her life to providing for her children and ensuring they were surrounded by love, support, and encouragement. She loved her children deeply, and they were the center of her world.

Passionate about helping others, she worked tirelessly to achieve her goals and, in 2023, fulfilled a lifelong dream by earning her degree and becoming a nurse. Her compassion, determination, and caring spirit allowed her to make a meaningful difference in the lives of many.

Peta-Gaye brought love, laughter, and light to those around her and will be deeply missed by all who knew and loved her. Her warm spirit and loving nature touched countless lives, and the memories she created with family and friends will remain cherished forever.

On Wednesday, May 13, 2026, at thirty-nine years of age, Peta-Gaye unexpectedly transitioned from this life.

She leaves to cherish her memory her mother, Karen Haughton; her father,

Peter McFarlane; her beloved children, Malcolm, Jameelah, and Bilal; her grandmothers, Delores Virgo and Winnie-Fred Linton; her stepmother; her siblings, Tiffany, Kemar, and Kelsey; along with a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, nieces, nephews, extended family members, and many dear friends whose lives she touched in countless ways.

Though her time here was far too short, the love she gave and the memories she created will live on forever in the hearts of those who loved her dearly. Forever loved, forever remembered.

“ Peta-Gaye, my dear cousin, I still can't comprehend how we went from planning a cruise with our kids together to laying you to rest today. It all feels so unreal. Only God knows why things happened this way. My heart is broken, but I am grateful for the memories we shared growing up together. We simply weren't ready for you to leave us. Your absence leaves a void that can never be filled. Rest peacefully, cousin. You will always be loved, deeply missed, and forever remembered.
