“ Today I woke up thinking about you mom there are no words to describe how much it hurts that I can't call and talk to you or that I can't go to see you. I miss you so very much and today will be such a hard pill to swallow. I will see your earthly body for the last time and my heart is so broken. I know you are in a better place free from the pain and suffering but I want to kiss your cheek and tell you just how much I love you. I will honor your memory for the rest of my days mom. I want to shout up to the heavens to give me back my mom but I can not be selfish. I prayed everyday for God to give me just a little more time with you and I will treasure every moment. You are a one of a kind treasure that you don't get to meet often in a lifetime and you always will be in our hearts and memories. Today is not a good bye but an until we meet again we love you mom into eternity. ❤️🥹❤️

“ Words can't explain what I feel in my heart. I feel HONORED to have met you. Thank you for being so pure and accepting me and my kids as if we were apart of your family. I never got to go through a passing. It was hard to accept my favorite Titi had passed away years ago and I never got to say good bye. Yet here I meet you 5 years ago and you start becoming a big part of my life Titi. I always questioned the phrase "people are meant to sometimes be apart of your life temporarily, Even if the process hurt." Now I understand, even though is so hard to accept. This process hurts and maybe we were only meant to know each other temporarily. One thing is for sure, you've left a mark in me that will forever live long. You said to me at one point. "I want to leave a mark on this earth."🌍 well you definitely have our beautiful angel. I will never forget the praise dance Elianis did for you when you were battling your cancer and the way you just admired her for it. Nor the prayers she would so purely say over you with blessings during your process or the day I sang to you after so many years you helped me break that chain. I know you battled for the family and I know you were so tired. You did what you could but God needed you with him and your loved ones who were waiting for you in a better place. You will truly be missed Titi Ramona by Elieser, Ezequiel, Elianis and Julian. Thank you always for loving us. Fly high beautiful angel. I know you'll be watching over chino and our family. We love you forever an eternity. RIP.

“ Bendicion tia, I wish i didn't have to post a memory, I wish I could've snap my fingers and just heal you. I wish cancer never existed. But that's not how life works and God had other plans. Im glad your no longer suffering. I remember going to your house on 18th street walking into your living room full with mirrors and pink my favorite color. You always had a beautiful home. I remember at times i seen you doing beautiful banners for church. You was so talented. I remember you made me a pink dress when i was lil. And made me a teddy bear in a pink chair. Everything was always beautiful. Your memories will live forever tia. You was one of a kind. May you rest in peace. Until we meet again fly high tia we all love you

“ Titi Ramona.. You are the heart of the family. ❤️ Since I was little I remember visiting your house for birthdays and holidays. You never knew who would be there or who you would run into because everyone loved coming to that apartment you had in park apartments. Titi would talk to us thru the window sometimes before we went inside her apartment. She was so warm and welcoming. You could talk to her about ANYTHING! When ppl know I'm her niece - they talk about her skills and talents of her creativity and decorations. Ive always felt so proud to be ur niece. I know how you impacted my life and so many others. The spirit and personality you have is so genuine and positive - which is one of the many qualities that will be forever memorable to me. You will forever live in our memories and our hearts. Fly high tia ☐ 🙏 🕊️

I loved watching her pump and mash her pedals in high heels and pantyhose and without and barefoot and in boots and sandals and flip flops. We made love several times over the years and I got her pregnant. I miss her so much.

“ Each day it is harder and harder to try to go on not having you there with us. I know you are now celebrating with daddy and the others who were waiting for you to join them. You are and always will be the biggest part of my life and your grandchildren's lives. There will be no one that will ever come close to the amazing mother and grandmother you were, that bright and amazing personality will never be forgotten. I am so grateful to have had the privilege to call you my mother and have had to been able to take care of you when you needed me. I will always remember our talks and shopping trips...lol they were epic. I love you forevermore and more than you will ever know.
