“...To everything there is a season
and a time to every purpose under the heaven:
A time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant,
And a time to pluck up that which is planted...”

Rechad Elliot Saunders, son of Retressa Saunders and stepson of Donald Vujasinovich, was born March 31, 1994, in Harrisburg, Pennsylvania. Educated in both the Steelton-Highspire and Central Dauphin School Districts, Rechad graduated from Central Dauphin East, Class of 2013. He had a keen interest in music throughout his life as a member of his elementary school chorus, high school band and his ultimate dream of attending Lebanon Valley College studying to become a band instructor. Rechad was a member of The Greater Zion Missionary Baptist Church where he attended Sunday School and served faithfully on the Junior Usher Board.

Rechad was loved and won the admiration of many people. He possessed an undeniable beauty both inside and out that served as a source of encouragement to all who knew him. His strong will and determination allowed him to see life as a new adventure every day.

On Tuesday, October 7, 2014, God In His Infinite Wisdom and Divine Love, called Rechad into eternal life. An articulate, loving, outgoing, kind and determined young man, Rechad will be deeply missed by his mother, Retressa Saunders; stepfather, Donald Vujasinovich; sister, Riley Vujasinovich; grandparents, Windell Saunders, Gregory and Rosezeda Harris; uncles, Rodney and Ryan; aunts, Pauline and Tazmia; two first cousins, Devin and Reylana; as well as a host other relatives, both Serbian and Irish, and friends who are all blessed to have shared Rechad's life journey.

Submitted with the Blessed Assurance of Rechad's Eternal Life, The Family Rechad's life will be celebrated at 11 a.m., Monday, October 13th, at his church, 212 N. Progress Avenue, Harrisburg, with viewing from 10 to 11 a.m. Interment will be at William Howard Day Cemetery.
