

Mr. Reginald James Clark

February 18, 1946 - September 21, 2015

Reginald James Clark, 69, passed away September 21st at his Harrisburg home. He was predeceased by his parents, Jim “Sugar Daddy” and Fern Lee Clark. A graduate of Central Dauphin High School, he retired from the field of health care and was a faithful minister, Swatara Congregation of Jehovah’s Witnesses. His pastimes included supporting the Dallas Cowboys, cooking and baking. Surviving are his siblings, Sandy, Linda and Mark Clark, Zora Kennedy and Agnes Howard. Memorial Service will be held at 1 p.m., Saturday, October 3rd, at the Swatara Congregation of Jehovah’s Witnesses, 420 Gibson Street, Steelton, PA.

Tribute Wall

KC

“ I can't believe this is real although I know it is. You're loved and will truly be missed. Cheering for the Cowboys won't be the same without you Uncle Reg. I'm glad you're no longer suffering in this system of things and looking forward to seeing you in the next. Much love you niece Kristie Cook and Family.

Kristie Cook - September 24, 2015 at 03:20 PM