“And whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die.

Believest thou this?”

John 11:26

~~~~~

Richard Coleman, son of the late James S. Coleman and the late Ruth Hinton Coleman, was born Friday, March 5, 1948, in Carlisle, Pennsylvania, where he was educated in the Carlisle School District.

Richard’s employment was in the construction and roofing trades. Fishing was one of his favorite pastimes. As a confession of his Christian faith, Richard was united with Agape International Family Worship Center under the leadership of his brother and sister-in-law, Pastors Duane and Cathy Coleman.

While at the Carolyn Croxton Slane Hospice Residence, Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, on Tuesday, October 14, 2014, at sixty-six years of age, Richard passed from the labors of his earthly journey to his reward of eternal life with his Lord and Savior Jesus Christ joining his parents and one sister, Donna Nealy.

Richard leaves to cherish many special memories his wife, Maxine Coleman of Harrisburg; his children, David Pegues III and James Robertson, both of Carlisle, Pennsylvania, Thyneatha Coleman of Atlanta, Georgia, Richard Coleman II of York, Pennsylvania, Peggy Grimes of Carlisle, Yhiakyasha Coleman Jackson of York, Rehema Jones and Jediah Jones, both of Harrisburg, Pennsylvania; his siblings, Sue Thomas of Akron, Ohio, Ruth Hadley of Los Angeles, California, Edith Day of York, Ronald Coleman of Steelton, Pennsylvania, Leona Palmer of Houston, Texas, Gloria Coleman of Asbury Park, New Jersey, Gary Coleman (Dawn) of York, Pastor Duane Coleman (Pastor Cathy) of Harrisburg, Lendora Coleman of Carlisle, and James Hadley of Harrisburg. Richard also leaves to honor his legacy a host of grandchildren, great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends.

Giving God All Glory, Honor and Praise, The Family

His life will be celebrated at 12 Noon, Monday, October 20th, at his church, 1330 Green Street, Harrisburg, with viewing from 11 A.M. to Noon. Interment will be at William Howard Day Cemetery.
