

Ricky S. Huffman Jr.

February 6, 1969 - December 13, 2024

Ricky S. Huffman Jr., son of the late Ricky S. Huffman Sr. and the late Jean Huffman, was born February 6, 1969, in York, Pennsylvania.

An EMS First Responder and a former York City volunteer firefighter, Ricky was passionate in serving the York County Community. He was the recipient of three awards during his firefighting years, and he loved the firefighter mustache, "It's a firefighter thing," "You wouldn't understand." Known to be a creature of habit, his other interests included classic rock music, the movie Convoy and supporting his Notre Dame, Hershey Bears and Baltimore Orioles teams.

On Friday, December 13, 2024, at fifty-five years of age, while at the Capitol Rehabilitation & Healthcare Center, Ricky S. Huffman Jr. departed this life joining in eternal life his parents; his paternal grandparents, Raymond and Sylvia Kauffman; and his maternal grandparents, Richard and Dessie Albright.

He leaves special memories and his love to his wife, Yvette Huffman of Harrisburg, PA; his son, Nikolas Huffman; his sister, Melissa Snell of York, PA; as well as two nephews, aunts and uncles.

“ Ricky and I became friends while working at Hill's Department store. As the years went by we became even closer friends. I will cherish the memory of when he asked me to the Firemen's Ball at the Elks Club. It was such a a wonderful night. Ricky was a true gentleman and great friend all these years. I will miss him dearly. My thoughts and prayers go out to his family.
