

Robert E. Baylor

November 8, 1953 - April 4, 2023

Robert E. Baylor, son of the late Patricia (Baylor) Sharpless and the late Ronald Wise, was born Sunday, November 8, 1953, in Harrisburg, PA. Lovingly known as “Bobby” by family and friends, he was raised by the late Henry Sharpless.

Robert received his formal education in the Harrisburg School District. In 1972, he married Cherry Pierce. For many years, he was employed by Capital City Countertops eventually retiring from Krehling Industries. A sports enthusiast, Robert enjoyed watching sports and going to basketball, football and baseball games. Foremost, he loved spending time with his family.

In his later years, Robert married Carol Siple and gained four stepdaughters and a host of step-grandchildren.

While at his home in Harrisburg, PA, on Tuesday, April 4, 2023, at sixty-nine years of age, Robert transitioned from time to eternity joining his parents, Patricia and Henry Sharpless, Ronald Wise; as well as two siblings, Rodney Baylor and Rose Guider.

Robert leaves to lovingly honor his legacy while sharing irreplaceable memories: his wife, Carol Siple Baylor; his precious daughter/caregiver, Patrice Baylor Poole (Tyrone); three sons, Robert Baylor (Bridgette), Yoseph

Wilkerson (Tamar), Pastor Robert Wilkerson (Latoria); brothers, Ronald Wise, Terrance Carpenter; sixteen grandchildren, nine great-grandchildren, step-grandchildren, other family members and friends.
