“ During a weekly visit with Rob in February, Rob and his brothers enjoyed a wonderful time of sharing that touched the staff working around us. The brothers were sharing their ideas about whether Tom Brady was ready for retirement after winning 5 Super Bowl championships. The conversation was a Collier event, animated and filled with laughter. One of the nursing home staff members came out of her office to say she enjoyed the brothers' conversation more than she enjoyed watching the actual game. It was no secret that Rob's caregivers appreciated him. He will be missed by them, his family and friends.

“ To the Family of Mr. Robert Collier--
David & Justin, your dad struggled for a long time after his injury. He had spunk and seemed to stay in charge of himself for as long as he could. We believe that you and your mom did what you believed to be best for him. He is now in eternal rest. We pray for your comfort in Christ's love.
