It is hard to put these thoughts into words for someone else, that is, his sister Lou, as she is fondly called. Robert's sister Lou would experience his loss everyday as if she is hearing it for the first time should I happen to share these memorial moments. It's extremely hard for me to know that she cannot mourn his passing, but perhaps that is okay because her heart and soul doesn't have the capacity to hurt in real time as we are all hurting or feeling sad. This is what persons living with Dementia and Alzheimer's endure. Lou loves her brother Robert as she loves them all. His picture will be visible to her to think on as her mind leads her.

Uncle Robert, one of my favorite uncles and favorite persons has gone home. His pain is no more. But he will be sorely missed on this side of life until we see him again. I will always remember how much we laughed about stuff! Contagious laughter! This is how I will keep him near and dear and not how he left us. I'm smiling already. Sandra Jones, Niece c/o Mary (Lou), sister.

“ Robert is my uncle. He would invite me over to his place to watch PPV fights. We always had a great time whenever I was with him. He was like my 2nd dad. (MY DAD'S LITTLE BROTHER). People would always as me if we was related to MR. MACK. Of course I PROUDLY SAID YES! We had a lot of laughs and just good quality time. He will be greatly missed. But FOREVER WITH US! I'm glad I got the chance to visit with him tell him I love him once again. . Keeping the family in prayers. We all know THIS IS NOT EASY AT ALL! Anyone who had a chance to know him. You know it was a blessing to know him. MY LOVE UNC! REST EASY!

“ My Dear Family...
Although I can't be there in person, my heart is with each and everyone of you. We are once again saying farewell to a beloved member of our family. My wish for all of us is that we be allowed to grieve in our own way without shame, reflect on memories full of joy and laughter, and remember the love he showered so generously on his family. Most of all, I wish for the Spirit of Peace to rest on each of our hearts. Uncle Robert...you are so loved and will be deeply missed. You will never be forgotten! With so much love,
Your Niece, Lisa.

“ In Loving Memory

One of my favorite memories of my father-in-law is how he was always smiling, ready to share a joke even the corny ones just to make someone laugh. He had a warmth about him that made people feel welcome and cared for.

He loved a fresh haircut it made him feel sharp and confident and he never passed up a chance for a good breakfast date with his family. Those little traditions, those simple moments, meant the world to him, and they brought us all closer together.

He was a good man, kind-hearted and full of life, always showing up with love, laughter, and that familiar twinkle in his eye. His presence lit up the room, and his absence will be deeply felt.

We'll miss his stories, his jokes. But we'll carry his memory with us, always.
