Ronald Alton Jackson, son of Constance (Jones) Maddox and the late William L. Jackson Sr., was born August 23, 1961, in Harrisburg, PA.

“ My condolences to the family. Ronnie was and still is a bright light shining in all that he loved and all the lives he touched. As I think of him I can hear clearly his playful, sincere laugh that brought smiles to your face. He was a gentle giant with a heart full of love. Until recently it had been years since we last saw or spoke to each other, but it was as if only a day. We had a quick catch up and a trip back down memory lane with lots of laughter. He was Uncle Ronnie to my kids and I will cherish all the wonderful memories. To his daughter, mother, siblings and his entire family, you are in my prayers, he will be missed by all , but never forgotten.

“ To cuz Connie and the rest of the family, my sincere condolences on the loss of your son, one of my favorite cousins!!!! Ronnie was the best van driver ever for Trinity Church, always kind and courteous. We joked a lot about a satchel I carried w/things for my grandkids, then one day he asked for something out of it, what a laugh we had. I got a chance to see him at church just before pandemic, what a joy it was. He is now safe and secure. Love you family Bonni Waters-Ross
