This glorious place beyond the sun is where I wait for you dear ones.

But until then—joyfully live.

Oh, do not ever mourn for me,

I'm now at Home...Completely Free.

Ronald Eugene More, affectionately known as “Pete” by family and friends, was born November 5, 1947, in Harrisburg, PA, to the union of the late David E. Moore and the late Carrie Mae Cooper Moore.

Pete received his formal education in the Harrisburg School District where he graduated from William Penn High School, Class of 1966. He began working at fourteen years of age at the Superior Store, 6th and Harris Streets, Harrisburg, until his career transitioned into employment with The City of Harrisburg where in 2004 he retired with twenty-eight years of service.

Pete was a member of Mount Calvary Church of God in Christ, Harrisburg.

His greatest enjoyments were times spent with his family eating, playing cards, going on vacations and enthusiastically supporting his Pittsburgh Steelers. Pete was not blessed with his own children, but he loved his role as

“Uncle Pete.”

On Thursday, January 16, 2014, at the age of sixty-six, Pete completed his earthly journey passing from labor to reward. He leaves to cherish many special memories his three sisters, Patricia Robinson, Carroll Lyons and Yvonne Moore-Fallings, all of Harrisburg; five nieces, Kimberly Washington, a special niece who was the first to call him Uncle Pete, Chante Moore, Laura Robinson, Kieva Fallings and Cherise Henry; three nephews, Maynard Robinson Jr., Gary Fallings and Shannon Lyons; numerous grand nieces, grand nephews and cousins; four special friends, Joe and Geneva Proctor, Norris Outlaw and Betty Summerford; other relatives and friends.

is life will be celebrated at 12 Noon, Friday, January 24th, at his church, 1830 N. 5th Street, Harrisburg, with viewing from 11 a.m. to 12 p.m. and interment at William Howard Day Cemetery.
