

Ronald Anthony Riley

January 16, 1958 - March 24, 2023

“When the spirit of truth comes, He will guide you into all the truth. For He will not speak on His own, but He will speak whatever he hears. He will also declare to you what is to come.” John 16:13

Ronald Anthony Riley, lovingly known as Ron by family and friends, was born Thursday, January 16, 1958, in Harrisburg, PA, son of the late George William Clark and the late Emmie Riley.

A product of the Harrisburg School District, Ron was a true entrepreneur owning and operating R&N Automotive in the City of Harrisburg. He was an ordained minister and held several other degrees. Having rededicated his life to the Lord this past year, Ronald always talked about the Holy Spirit being his best friend.

He had a passion for working on cars and listening to gospel music. Ronald always had a listening ear for anyone needing to talk. Even though his body language said, “tired,” he, nevertheless, took the time to listen. Ronald was a very industrious and respected employee at Dayton Products Company. He was an excellent example to the younger employees who were inspired by his work ethic.

Ronald transitioned from time to his eternal heavenly home on Friday, March 24, 2023, at sixty-five years of age.

Ronald leaves a legacy of love and faith to be honored and cherished by his wife, Nina Riley; stepchildren, Tasia, Soraya and Bradley Jackson; sisters, Prudence Clark, Patricia Clark Cooksey; brother, Kevin Clark; step-grandchildren, Asani and Amani Robinson, Bradley III and Kylei Jackson; as well as a host of other relatives and friends.

“ To My brother -in-law, I will miss you dearly. There was nothing you wouldn't do for your family. We could never tell if you were in pain, because you still worked and did all you could do for others. Putting their need before yours. You were truly a a great man. I will miss the cookouts. You showed everyone love and encouraged the young ones. Your grandbabies loved their poppop. They still love and talk about you every day. They pray every night and during the day if they need extra prayers. To my sister Nina, I have watched you grow in an abundance of faith. I know that Ronald is smiling down and is so proud of you. Things are going to be ok. I will be here for you always. Stay in prayer and stay strong and positive. God will never leave you nor forsake you. He is always with you and guides you. He will stand by you and He will see you through. You will never be alone through this. Jesus loves you and so does our family. He walks with God and the Angels. He is telling you that you can do this. Never give up and never give in . I Love You so much. Peace, Love, Blessings, Prayers, and Hugs. God will bring you comfort and joy. You big sister Tina 🌹🙏📄💕👼🧡💕👉
