Reflecting Upon the Life of Mr. Ronald Roberts

Ronald Roberts, son of the late Fred Robert Sr. and the late Blanche Williams Roberts, was born Sunday, May 1, 1955, in Harrisburg, Pennsylvania.

Ronald was educated in the public schools of Harrisburg where he graduated from the former John Harris High School. Ronald was employed by Interior Furniture Resources and loved listening to “Oldies but Goodies” music and dancing.

In his fifty-ninth year, at his Harrisburg home on Thursday, May 15, 2014, Ronald completed his earthly journey. In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by one brother, Fred Roberts Jr. Ronald leaves to celebrate his life and forever treasure many special memories seven siblings, Betty Reid of York, Pennsylvania, Gwendolyn Roberts Pinnock and Rose Ann Roberts Latimore, both of Harrisburg, Leonard Roberts of Steelton, Pennsylvania, Ricky Roberts and Donnie Roberts, both of Harrisburg, and Teri Roberts of York. His legacy will also be honored by his twenty nieces and nephews, twelve great nieces and great nephews as well as a host of cousins, other relatives and friends.

Life is but a Precious Moment, but Love lives on Forever.

“ *To the family,
I was sadden to hear about of the loss of Ronnie. May God comfort all of you during this difficult time. Ronnie and I were close childhood and teenage friends , and never broke our bond. It was always such a joyous time to see him and talk for awhile. Funny while being kids I never thought I'll be writing this to you Ronnie. We have always cherish our love and friendship. Say hello to our other friend Marvin up in heaven. I'll see you when I get there.*
