

Mr. Samuel M. Hunter

May 3, 1946 - September 24, 2017

Samuel M. Hunter, son of the late Richard and Elizabeth Roach Hunter, was born Friday, May 3, 1946, in Sumter, South Carolina.

Moving with his family from South Carolina to Pennsylvania in 1951, he attended the Steelton school district graduating from Steelton High School in 1966. After graduating from high school, he joined the United States Army. His only tour of duty was in Baumholder, Germany. He was honorably discharged in 1970 as a Sergeant.

Sammy, as he was affectionately called, united with the Beulah Baptist Church in Steelton, Pennsylvania at an early age. He was a faithful member of the church having served with the Van Ministry.

He attended Universal Heavy Construction School, Harrisburg Campus, where he received his Certificate of Completion. After receiving his certificate in 1972, he was certified as an Operating Engineer with International Union of Operating Engineers Local Union #542. Having worked as an Operating Engineer, he retired with 20 years of service. He later worked as a Sign Technician with the Pennsylvania Department of Transportation and retired with 13 years of service.

On July 13, 1968, he married Martha Curtis, and they shared 49 years of marital bliss. From this union, two loving daughters were born, Tammy and Nyette.

Sammy had a great interest in politics and history. If you ever had a question about a political matter or history event, you could ask Sammy and he would educate you. He was a great debater and often times could be found watching political debates whether local, state, or national events. He also loved traveling with his family and would often times make the arrangements. When Sammy wasn't working or traveling, he loved watching MSNBC and many western shows – "Gunsmoke" was his favorite show. He was also a sports enthusiast watching football and golf. Seattle Seahawks was his favorite team.

Along with his parents, he was predeceased by one son, Kevin Hunter, and one sister, Esther White. He departed this earthly life on Sunday, September 24, 2017, with his loving and devoted family by his side.
