

Mr. Samuel O. Macon

May 21, 1955 - August 22, 2019

Samuel O. Macon, known as “Petey” by family and friends, was born May 21, 1955, in Harrisburg, PA, son of the late Wallace Macon Sr. and Florence (Hall) Macon. He was a student at St. John’s the Evangelist School and a graduate of Central Dauphin East, Class of 1973. Upon graduation, he worked as a chef in numerous restaurants in the Harrisburg Area. Among his most enjoyable activities were fishing, baseball, boating, cooking and listening to Motown Music. Sam was a loving brother, father, grandfather and uncle who loved making people laugh.

On August 22, 2019, at sixty-four years of age, Sam departed this life joining in eternal life his parents and other loved ones. He leaves to cherish his memory one daughter, Adrienne Dininni of Enhaut, PA; two grandchildren; two sisters, Carla Phinney of Steelton, PA, and Geneva (Macon) Pereira of Hilo, Hawaii; one brother, Wallace Macon Jr. (Sandra) of Steelton; as well as a multitude of other family members and friends.
