Sarah L. Wilkerson Murphy, daughter of the late Robert Wilkins and the late Gertrude Wilkerson, was born Monday, October 14, 1963, in Harrisburg, Pennsylvania.

Sarah graduated from Harrisburg High School and pursued higher educational endeavors by earning an Associate’s Degree at Central State University, Wilberforce, Ohio, and Thompson Institute, Harrisburg, as well as a Bachelor’s Degree in Business Administration at Lebanon Valley College, Annville, PA.

Having accepted Jesus Christ as her personal Savior, Sarah was formerly united in Christian fellowship with Bethel Village A.M.E. Church and continued to receive and faithfully accept the Word of God through the ministering of the Reverend Donald E. Brantley Sr., Pastor, New Anointed Christian Fellowship Ministries, Harrisburg.

After twenty-five years of dedicated service, Sarah retired from Capital Blue Cross. She was a “die-hard” Cowboys fan and art enthusiast. Sarah loved hosting family gatherings, spending time with her sons and grandchildren, shopping and traveling.

On Thursday, January 9, 2014, while at the Spring Creek Rehabilitation and Health Care Center, Harrisburg, in her fiftieth year, after fighting a good fight, never wavering in her faith and surrounded by her loving family, Sarah finished her course transitioning into eternal life.

Missing her, but letting her go are her former husband/caregiver, Charles Murphy Jr. of Harrisburg; two sons, Lamar Wilkerson and a devoted son and caregiver, Charles Murphy III, both of Harrisburg; one sister, Neviest Johnson of Harrisburg; two brothers, Ernest Wilkerson of Harrisburg, and Kenneth Wilkerson of Grantville, PA; an uncle, John Wilkerson of Harrisburg; three grandchildren, Ryland Nelson of Blacksburg, VA, Quentin Wright and Jon`el Wright, both of Harrisburg; four devoted friends, Kelly Oliver of Pittsburgh, PA, Brenda Easter, Rozalyn Woodyard and Charlene Collier, all of Harrisburg; a devoted cousin, Jeanne Rector of Middletown, PA; as well as a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

“ I am sorry to read about your loss. May God's words in the Bible at Ps 34:18 provide you comfort. The scriptures tells us "HE" is near to those broken at heart, and those crushed in spirit HE saves.
