

Mr. Shaquan Wayne Campbell

September 4, 1990 - April 26, 2017

Shaquan was born Tuesday, September 4, 1990, in Brooklyn, New York, son of Wayne Page and Shawnique Campbell.

A graduate of Harrisburg High School, John Harris Campus, Harrisburg, PA, he attended Harrisburg Area Community College and was employed by Bobby Rahal, Mechanicsburg, PA. Shaquan was 'one-of-a-kind,' loving, caring and family oriented. His leadership mentality proved him wise beyond his years. Even during tough times, he was cool, calm and collected. His strong determination allowed him to see life as a new adventure every day, and his presence always demanded attention as he was young, fly and flashy. If in need, he would literally give you the coat off his back. Shaquan loved traveling, fashion, music, cars and, especially, spending time with his family.

On Wednesday, April 26, 2017, at twenty-six years of age, Shaquan departed this life. He was preceded in death by his paternal grandfather, Desmond Page. Shaquan leaves to share the grief of his passing and forever treasure many special memories his mother, Shawnique Campbell of Brooklyn, NY; father, Wayne Page of Kingston, Jamaica; maternal grandmother, Doretha Campbell of Harrisburg, PA; paternal grandmother, Angela Jackson of Brooklyn; six siblings, Patrick Campbell of Brooklyn, Sariah Lewis of Brooklyn, Donnique Page of Los Angeles, CA, LaChae Page of Queens, NY, Janae Page of Los Angeles and Brittany Fletcher of Manhattan, NY; aunts, Tenesha

Elliott and Lashawne Campbell, both of Harrisburg; uncles, Maleek Campbell of Harrisburg, Jermaine Campbell of Atlanta, GA, James Walker of Locust Grove, VA, and Shawn Talbert of Brooklyn; as well as other relatives and friends.

Lovingly Submitted, The Family

“ I remember pulling up to the pool and you had your bright neon yellow slides with the matching goggles.. and sneaking into the Sheraton to work out before the turn up later.. and I remember when you wanted to be all time quarter back for those kids. I had my first shot of Hennessy with you, and let me tell you Quan, it was gross. I remember when I was walking to work and you pulled up next to me and told me get in the car, I'm like quan it's down the street and you told me so what I can drive. And your seat belt didn't even work... I was scared! And when that girl passed out in the bathroom and you picked her up so we could take her home, and she dirtied your pants.. you were so mad, but you still did it. You have such a beautiful heart, and an amazing soul. I will miss you QuanDaDon. Thank you for teaching me how to grow up. Friends for life..

“ I remember the first day your mom brought you home from the hospital. I was so eager to see your little face... she walked in with you all bundled up... I followed behind her up the 4 flights of steps into our apartment... although I was only 7, I can still remember your new born smell... I can still smell your Rue 21 cologne... oh how I am going to miss you Quanie. Forever in my heart you will be nephew.
