Sheila M. Johnson

~~~~~

My Father's way may twist and turn, my heart may throb and ache,
But in my soul I'm glad I know, He maketh no mistake.
There's so much now I cannot see, my eyesight's far too dim;
But come what may, I'll simply trust and leave it all to Him.
For by and by the mist will lift and plain it all He'll make.
Through all the way, though dark to me,
He made not one mistake.

Sheila M. Jonson was born September 15, 1952, in Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, daughter of the late Robert Harris and the late Corine Bellamy Lewis.

Educated in the Harrisburg School District, she graduated from William Penn High School, and in September of 2014, she retired from Sodexo at Pinnacle Health, Harrisburg Hospital. In addition to playing bingo, shopping, traveling and vacationing, she especially loved spending quality time with her sons, sisters, brother, grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

At sixty-two years of age, while at the Harrisburg Hospital, on Wednesday, November 5, 2014, the angels came to escort Sheila into Eternal Life joining her parents, sister, Maxine Ernest, brother, Adam Vaught, and nephew,

Dennis "Jerome" Alexander. Sheila leaves to celebrate her life while sharing many special and treasured memories: two sons, Kevin Johnson (Alisa) of Harrisburg, and Charles "Chas" Johnson of Laurel, Maryland; lifetime companion, Robert Collier of Harrisburg; her siblings, Rose Alexander, Willard Bellamy (Tracey) and Roberta Vennie, all of Harrisburg. Her legacy will also be honored and remembered by her six grandchildren, two great-grandchildren, host of nieces, nephews, other relatives, friends and close friends, Tina Forney and her husband Ervin.

“ Dear Chas and Family,

We are so sorry for your loss of Ms. Johnson and the recent loss of her beloved sister. May His Light shine upon you and their memories live on in each of you. Be comforted in that they are together in Heaven talking away and always with you.

I am going to miss hearing you talk with your "Mother". Chas, you are such a devoted and loving son. How proud she must have been of the man that you are and her legacy.

We send you our prayers and deepest sympathy during this time.

Warmest Regards,
