

Shelton Keith Pope

March 31, 1963 - April 12, 2023

Shelton Keith Pope, son of Diane Williams and the late Charles Bradshaw, was born Sunday, March 31, 1963, in Sebrell, VA, (Southampton County).

He graduated from Southampton High School in 1982. Shelton worked at Southampton Memorial Hospital in Franklin, VA. He later moved to Harrisburg, PA, in 1989, where he developed a very close relationship with his second mother, Aunt Clara, and his Uncle Lester. He worked at the Villa Teresa Nursing Home, the YWCA and Clean Team, all of PA.

Shelton loved baseball, football, cooking and eating. He played baseball in high school and with the City of Franklin Recreation League. He was an avid fan of his favorite NFL team, the Dallas Cowboys. Foremost, and most importantly, Shelton loved spending time with his family, especially his mother, brothers, aunts, uncles, cousins, nephews, nieces, his love Sherri and his daughter Anna. He had a deep and abiding love and affection for his family. He would call his family regularly, especially during the holidays. If you look up the word “love” in the dictionary, Shelton’s name would be right there.

Shelton transitioned into eternal life on Wednesday, April 12, 2023, at sixty years of age. He leaves to celebrate his life: his mother, Diane Williams, Franklin, VA; his brothers, Timothy Williams, Newport News, VA, Daryl “Jamaine” Williams (Debbie), Laurel, MD; the love-of-his-life, Sherri

Chanchlani, Harrisburg, PA; daughter, Anna Leland, Harrisburg, PA; godson, Lamont Smith, Charlotte, NC; his aunts, his second mother, Aunt Clara; his uncles, especially his Uncle Lester, his nieces, nephews, great-nieces, great-nephews, cousins and many friends in Virginia and Pennsylvania.
