

Sherle Barbette Seigle

April 5, 1953 - May 27, 2025

Sherle Barbette Seigle, daughter of the late Thomas H. Moore Sr. and the late Edna L. (Headen) Moore, was born Sunday, April 5, 1953, in Harrisburg, PA.

Educated in the Steelton-Highspire School District, Sherle earned her associate's degree at Harrisburg Area Community College and her Bachelor of Divinity at Lancaster Bible College with Dean's List Academic Recognition at both.

Sherle's employment path included Exit Spivey Realty, Ellicott City, MD, and retirement from AT&T Communications.

On Tuesday, May 27, 2025, while at her home in Baltimore, MD, Sherle Barbette Seigle peacefully transitioned into eternal life at seventy-two years of age. Along with her parents, Sherle was preceded in death by her daughter, Gail Seigle; brothers, Glen Moore, and Darryl Moore Sr.; sister, Monica Martin; and grandson, Jarrett Seigle.

Sherle, a beacon of light and faith, leaves a loving legacy and many special memories to be cherished by her daughters, Shawn Dixon (Joseph), Felicia and Jillian Seigle; her siblings, Lawrence Toomey (Brenda), Thomas H. Moore Jr. (Patricia), Gwendolyn Kelley (John), Deborah Locklear-Oglesby, Eleese Moore-Jones, Nicole Folson (Luther) and Christopher Moore. Her memory will also be honored and lovingly remembered by six grandchildren, four great-grandchildren, two godchildren, a spiritual daughter and grandson, all her favorite nieces, nephews, best girlfriends, and a host of other family members.

“ Shawn, Felicia (Fe), Jillian and Family,

Our hearts are heavy with the news of Mama Sherle's passing. She truly was a radiant light in this world - her infectious smile could brighten any room, and her warm, loving embrace made everyone feel like family. The joy and laughter she brought to all who knew her will live on in the countless beautiful memories she created.

With deepest sympathy and all our love,
