

Ms. Sonya D. Carson

October 29, 1966 - May 22, 2018

Sonya was born Saturday, October 29, 1966, in Orlando, Florida, daughter of the late Inez Carson and the late Irving Taylor.

“Brown Eyes,” as Sonya was affectionately known by family and friends, graduated from Harrisburg High School, Class of 1985. She was employed by National Government Services for thirty-one years. Decorating and, foremost, being with family and friends were among Sonya’s most enjoyable times.

Sonya’s pretty smile would always brighten up any room, and she loved to share her favorite inspirational saying, “Let Go and Let God.”

On Tuesday, May 22, 2018, at the age of fifty-one in the peace of her home in Harrisburg, PA, Sonya entered into eternal life with the comfort and loving presence of her family and friends.

Sonya leaves to cherish many special and irreplaceable memories her devoted significant other, Michael McCoy; her two sons, Jamal Jackson and Joshua Jackson; her sister, Towanda Carson; seven grandchildren, Jatore Jackson, Jayce Jackson, Landon Jackson, Ashton Wise, Justise Jackson, Jayelle Jackson and Jonas Jackson; two nephews, Montel Oliver and Keithlynn Oliver; goddaughter, Dariaun Mathis; a special friend, Karen Price; and a devoted cousin, LaSandra Cousins, all of Harrisburg, PA. Sonya will also be lovingly remembered by her Aunt Gladys Davis of Hampton, Virginia, her Aunt Stella Davis of Georgia; and a host of other special relatives and special friends.

Gone, But Never Forgotten! Lovingly Submitted by the Family of Sonya D.

“ I met Sonya when we were adolescents. She was a neighbor of my relatives on Boyd Street. Given that we are a couple years apart in age, I looked up to her as a big sister. She was so kind and fun to be around. Even as an adult, she remained loving, encouraging, and supportive; so much so, she was in my wedding 16 years ago. As time past, we did not get to see each other on the regular. But, we always had the biggest and longest embrace when we would see one another. I will truly treasure our time....

My condolences to all affected by her passing.

*With love,

“ Right now I am truly lost for words, Sonya's spirit was one that was truly caring, unique and genuine. To my nephews your mother loved you to life, I will keep you all in prayer, she loved her grandchildren, family and friends unconditionally. She will be missed by all who knew and loved her. May her soul rest in paradise. God Bless
