and a time to every purpose under the Heaven.”
Ecclesiastes 3:1

Stacy was born Saturday, May 17, 1969, in Harrisburg, PA, daughter of Robert Brown and Margaret Rucker.

Stacy was educated in the Harrisburg School District, and employed by Spring Creek Rehabilitation and Health Care Center. Stacy loved her job at Spring Creek which gave her the opportunity to see the elderly patients and assist with their needs. As a testament to her Christian faith, she was united in Christian fellowship with Way of The Cross Church of The Living God under the pastorate of Elder Jerome Wilson and Elder Edith Wilson.

Stacy’s most enjoyable pastimes were cooking, reading, traveling, visiting casinos, singing and, foremost, spending time with her grandchildren and family.

At the age of forty-seven, Stacy completed her life journey on Monday, November 14, 2016, joining in eternal life her son, Jalil Smith, and her stepfather, Paul Thomas.

Stacy leaves to cherish lasting and irreplaceable memories her mother, Margaret Rucker; her father, Robert Brown; two daughters, Tynisha Enaire and Felicia Jackson; seven grandchildren, Dre`an Pendleton, Layton Potter, Jeremy Enaire, Laycee Potter, Layna Potter, Dy`Mir Maurice Lockett and Taylor Gayle; her maternal grandmother, Mamie Rucker; her best friend, Keevah Brown; as well as a host other relatives and friends.

Submitted with the Blessed Assurance of Stacy's Eternal Life, The Family Her life will be celebrated at 12 Noon, Thursday, December 1st, at Wallace Funeral Directors with viewing 11 a.m.-12 Noon. Flowers may be delivered to the funeral home, 12/1, 9-9:30 a.m.
