

Stanley Neal Jackson Jr

December 27, 1940 - April 26, 2011

Deacon Stanley N. Jackson Jr.

Deacon Stanley N. Jackson Jr. of Altavista Avenue peacefully entered eternal life on April 26, 2011. He was born December 27, 1940 in Leesburg, VA, son of the late Stanley Sr. and Estelle Foster Jackson.

A U.S. Army Veteran, he earned a B.S. Degree in Sociology from the University of Erlangen in Germany. His employment and retirement history included CNA Insurance, part time Drug and Alcohol Counselor, Northeastern Regional Manager at Aramark and Merchandiser with Advantage Sales and Marketing. Being a dedicated member of Mt. Zion Missionary Baptist Church, he was ordained a Deacon in 1999 and labored as a layman, Sunday School Superintendent, Advisor for Trail Explorers, Male Youth Ministry and National Baptist Congress of Christian Education Representative. He enjoyed studying the Bible, annual "Kings Who Cook" competition and sharing the "Good News."

He leaves to honor his legacy and cherish loving memories: his devoted wife of thirteen years, Frances Arlene; sons, Stanley Jackson III and Eriqye Blanco; adopted daughter, Dana Frye Jackson; granddaughter, Jesia Frye Jackson; sisters-in-law, Sarah Perez, Joeretta Woods and Elaine Fuller; brothers, James and Raymond (Joanne) Jackson; nephews, Timothy Fuller Sr. ((La'Kicia) and James Woods II (LaQuita); other relatives and friends.

Deacon Jackson's Life will be celebrated at 11 a.m., Tuesday, May 3rd, at his church, 20 Locust Street, Steelton, with viewing/visitation from 10-11 a.m. and interment at Indiantown Gap National Cemetery. Professional services entrusted to Wallace Funeral Directors. www.wallacefd.com.
