

Sue C. Sellers

December 14, 1945 - May 1, 2026

Sue C. Sellers, beloved daughter of the late John D. McKee and the late Ida B. McKee, was born on December 14, 1945, in Somerset, Kentucky.

Sue accepted Christ at an early age and began a lifelong journey of faith. She was a devoted member of Mount Olive Baptist Church in Somerset, Kentucky, before uniting in fellowship with Beulah Baptist Church in Steelton, Pennsylvania, in June 1970. At Beulah, she faithfully served in the Culinary, Missionaries, and Nurses Ministries, sharing her time, talents, and caring spirit with others. One of her favorite scriptures, John 3:16, reflected the foundation of her faith and the love she carried in her heart.

Sue graduated from Somerset High School in 1964 and went on to build a dedicated career with the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, Department of Transportation, where she served for more than 30 years before retiring. Known for her strong work ethic and commitment, she earned numerous certificates and awards throughout her career.

Beyond her professional life, Sue was deeply connected to her community. For over 40 years, she worked as an Avon sales representative, forming lasting relationships along the way. She also gave her time as a delivery driver for Meals on Wheels, always willing to lend a helping hand to those in need.

Sue was an avid reader who loved getting lost in romance and thriller novels, especially those by Danielle Steele and James Patterson. She enjoyed visiting yard sales, often returning home with treasured finds and stories to share. A loyal Dallas Cowboys fan, she cheered for her team with unwavering enthusiasm. Above all, Sue expressed her love through cooking, bringing family and friends together for cookouts, holiday meals, and special gatherings. Her “world-famous” banana pudding was a favorite and will be remembered by all who had the pleasure of tasting it.

On Friday, May 1, 2026, at eighty years of age, Sue peacefully transitioned into eternal life, surrounded by the love of her family. In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her brothers, Donald Lee McKee of Somerset, Kentucky, and Joseph McKee of Louisville, Kentucky.

Left to cherish her precious memories are her children, Timothy F. McKee of Steelton, Pennsylvania, and Twayna M. Sellers of Baltimore, Maryland; three grandchildren, Tyler McKee of Huntington, Delaware, Kayce McKee of Brooklyn, New York, and Rachael McKee of Burlington, Vermont; her siblings, Leon D. McKee of Somerset, Kentucky, Johnetta Mitchell of Midwest City, Oklahoma, Shirley D. Coleman and Marilyn G. Adams, both of Lexington, Kentucky, Mark McKee of Harker Heights, Texas, Elizabeth “Libby” Fitch of Van Nuys, California, and Dewayne McKee of Somerset, Kentucky; along with a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives, and dear friends.

“ I'm really going to miss you dearly Sister Sue. You had so much spunk and humor, always saying what was on your mind. You were the best neighbor anyone could have. You watched out for me, whether I needed a ride to our missionaries meeting, or to church. I enjoyed visiting you in your beautiful home, which you were so proud of. I also enjoyed listening to you talk about your 57 years at Beulah, and the growth we've experienced. In our last conversations, you kept saying, "Debbie, I just want to go home." Well, Sister Sue, your Father in heaven heard you and called you to your eternal home. Rest in heavenly peace Sister Sue! 🙏😊❤️😊

“ On behalf of the Dunbar High and Elementary school of Somerset Kentucky. We would like to offer our condolences to the family. Sue was one of our esteemed colleagues to attend Dunbar. She attended her first eight years of school at Dunbar before integration. She was from a family that was well respected in our community. Gone but not forgotten, she was a mighty Dunbar Trojan!

I am so honored to have met Sue when she came to NC to bring my hometown friend Arnetta Jackson to visit. She loved sitting on the back porch reading a book during the visit to Hoffman. She always gave me a greeting while during service on Facebook each Sunday at Simon Temple AME Zion Church in Fayetteville. However, at 10 am. I received the invitation to join her at 10 for her service at Beulah. I will miss her messages and fondly keep her in my precious memories. I will miss the Christmas cards she sent each year as well. I will miss her thoughtful messages always filled with warmth and love. Condolences to the family and you are in my thoughts and prayers.
