“ Tammy, was a sweetheart and so funny, growing up right across the street from each other, we would sit on her porch and talk and laugh or she would be on our side of the street cutting up, her smile was so pretty and big and she was always positive! And unstoppable, RIP old friend 🌹❤️

“ Rest in Heavenly Peace Tammy. I will forever cherish the wonderful memories of you. You always had a happy spirit full of joy and laughter. I can remember the days when I lived on 15th Street and would walk past your house going to the corner store on Herr St. and you would be sitting on the porch, you always had that wave and smile and a nice conversation. To the family, I send my sincere condolences. Weeping May Endure for a Night, but Joy Comes in the Morning.
