

Tanicka Necole (Patterson) "Tooker" Taylor

August 30, 1982 - March 10, 2023

With profound sadness, the family of Mrs. Tanicka "Tookerz" Taylor announces her passing following an illness, while surrounded by her husband, family and friends on Friday, March 10, 2023, at forty years of age.

Tanicka was born in Harrisburg, PA, on August 30, 1982. She was welcomed into this world as Tanicka N. Patterson by her father, James L. Patterson, and her mother, Gwendolyn Evette White. Fondly referred to as "Tookerz," she quickly became the apple of everyone's eye and quite a bundle of joy in the neighborhood as well as amongst family and friends.

Tanicka was reared in the Church of God in Christ. As a child she attended services with her mother and at times with her godfather, Reverend Willie Cooper and his family. When old enough to decide for herself, she attended The Rock Church Harrisburg under the leadership of Pastor Joshua C. Robertson.

In her formative years, Tanicka attended school in the Harrisburg School District. Throughout her school days, with her fun-loving spirit, sharing and caring heart and ability to communicate well with others, she gained many friendships with her peers and relationships with adults that spanned her lifetime. Many of Tanicka's relationships with others were embraced in a family way. Everyone she cared about readily went from friend to Mom, Sister,

Brother, Auntie, Uncle, Cousin, and as for the children, well, they were her children, and she was an ever-popular Baby Momma.

Her caring and protective personality was loved and respected by many as well as a sense of apprehension by the same number. She had a heart to help many within the City of Harrisburg whenever she saw a need or heard of a situation where love, kindness and commitment was the remedy to heal or to bring forth a good outcome overall. This particular trait was the sounding board into a career of service. She was employed as a caregiver helping sick and shut-in the practice of homecare and in facilities, she was active in assisting in the personal care of residents, clients or patients. She was a manager in several McDonald's franchise locations, as well as a mixologist for several special events and in several establishments in the Harrisburg area.

Tookerz was always giving of herself to make others' lives better. She seemed to know just what people needed whether the need was physical, emotional, monetary or otherwise, and she applied herself with zeal to help in whatever way she could. Known to be giving so selflessly of herself was an exemplification of her sweet spirit and gentle heart, beheld by the ones she loved and those that were closest to her.

Tanicka was preceded in death by her mother, Gwen E., and two sisters, Rita and Melody. She leaves to mourn her husband, Jermaine A. Taylor; her three daughters, Tymeshia Renee, Journey Evette and Spirit Bri'Hanna; her father, James Louis; a brother, Chandler Martin; two sisters, Chelsa Marie and Jamisha Evette; her brother/cousin, Raynard and Courtney; her family pet K-9, Apollo; and a host of relatives and friends.

“ I've picked up my phone many times just to look at the pics that I have on my phone or to play some of your old videos just so I can hear your voice. Every day since your passing, feels like I'm in a bad dream that I can't seem to wake up from.

I swear it feels like someone got it wrong, this can not be real. I try to stay off your page because it forces me to deal with the reality of you being gone and it's hard accepting your death. I hope you know the impact you've had on so many people you were truly amazing and I'm glad to have called you my BFF.

You lit up every room you stepped in, your energy was magnetic you were such a genuine person. Tookers you weren't a one in a million type of person you were definitely a once-in-a-lifetime type of individual that people would have been lucky to ever cross paths with 😊 I miss you very much Tanicka Taylor this isn't goodbye forever my friend but it's farewell for now

I love You ❤️🙏

“ Sending my heartfelt condolence to Tanicka (AKA) Tookers, whom I met while working at the Old Middle School. She was such a joy to be around, with a smile that would light up a room, along with her bubbly personality and she always had a warm embrace with the best hugs. She is definitely going to missed by all who knew and loved her. May her sole rest easy in paradise. God bless her family in this difficult time.
