

Temika Rivera Hill

May 18, 1979 - August 11, 2021

Temika Rivera Hill was born Friday, May 18, 1979, in Harrisburg, PA.

Temika graduated from John Harris High School, Class of 1998, and she was employed by the Pennsylvania Department of Transportation.

Temika loved her children unconditionally. Super-woman to her children and wonder-woman to her sisters, Temika was always there. She was an accomplished handyman, very creative, well-organized and ready to help mom, dad or whomever; no matter how small or large the task. She had a heart-of-gold, so full of love. Just with her smile alone, you felt her happy, loving glow whenever in her presence. Temika enjoyed drawing, painting (her favorite color was blue), babysitting, cooking, baking, singing, shopping, cleaning and vacationing every year with her best friend (Spice)--Michelle Akins and their children. Foremost, Temika loved being with her family.

On Thursday, August 11, 2021, at forty-two years of age, Temika departed this life. She was preceded in death by her grandfathers, Bernard Everson Sr. and James Hunt; grandmother, Dorothy Hunt; aunt, Dorothy E. Rivera; uncles, Bernard "Tony" Everson, Marvin Everson and Maurice Everson.

Temika leaves many loving memories to be cherished by her parents, Marcelle Everson and Antonia Hill; her sons, Bryan Hill, Brandyn Hill and Bryson Hill; daughter, Taniyah Hill Cameron; grandmother, Josephine Everson; sisters, Marcella Everson and Ashley Everson; aunts, Lisa Dixon, Sharon Miner, Letitia "Candy" Everson and Caroline "Colleen" Everson; uncles, Michael "Dichael" Hill, Antonio "Tbone" Hill, Ricky Parker, Timothy Everson, Stevie Everson; great-uncles, Uncle Woodie, Uncle Porky; great-aunt, Sandra Hill; nephews, Carlos Garcia, Camar Cordero; as well as a host of cousins, other family members and friends.

“ Meka...my baby. Feels like we just got off the phone. It seems unreal. I can't believe you are gone. I watched you grown from a 17yr old to an amazing g mother. Your children were your all. I can't imagine the pain but I promise to be there for them. U can still hear your laugh or see you crying when you laughed just like your dad. It wasn't supposed to be you already...it was too soon. I will miss you with my all and love you forever.

*Love your step mamma/friend forever

“ My deepest and sincere condolences to Temika’s family and children. Temika was in my homeroom a few times when we went to Penn and we shared a few classes during our four years in High School. She was always quiet and had a smile that could light up the room. My prayers of peace and comfort during this time.
