My condolences to and Terrance's family. I remember dancing at you guys wedding along with your daughter and niece to Michael Jackson's "I Can't Stop Loving You " You exemplified and unconditional love for your husband, and honored your vows when you said in sickness and in health until death do us part. And with that said, I wish you nothing but peace going forward well done!

“ Never forget his love for fishing. We had many good days out in the local waters. My best memory was when I had caught a 19 1/2" small mouth bass behind penn dot. The funny thing is a lunker is considered 20" or better. We did our best to measure it ,but fell short. One on my best memories.
