

Mrs. Thelma Durham

March 1, 1925 - October 16, 2014

Thelma Durham

Thelma Durham, 89, of Steelton, entered eternal life October 16, 2014. She was born in Rock Hill, S.C., where she received her formal education. She was preceded in death by her parents, Willie and Eulah Mae Fewell; husband, Rev. James E. Pearson; daughter, Lucille Johnson; sons, Thomas and Willie Durham; siblings, Elvenia Fewell-Dye and Charles Fewell.

As a member of Beulah Baptist Church since 1949, she served faithfully with the Missionaries, Head of the Kitchen Committee, Busy Bee Club, Election Day Luncheon Group and in numerous other capacities whenever and wherever she could be of assistance. For over 50 years, she was a dedicated domestic worker in Harrisburg and surrounding areas. Among her pastimes were working puzzles, cooking and supporting the Dallas Cowboys.

Mrs. Durham leaves a legacy of love, faith and dedication to be emulated by her children, David Lee Durham, Veda M. Brown, both of Harrisburg, Peggy Ann Durham-Thomas of Gastonia, NC, Shirley Ann Durham of Harrisburg, and Christine Durham of Brooklyn, NY; 45 grandchildren, 36 great grandchildren, 5 great-great grandchildren, 2 God-children; special friends, Sue Sellers, Valerie Spencer, Greg Stafford, Gerald Brown; other relatives and friends.

Mrs. Durham's life will be celebrated at 12 Noon, Thursday, October 23rd, at her church, 100 Livingston Street, Steelton, with viewing from 11 A.M.-12 P.M. Interment will be at William Howard Day Cemetery.

Tribute Wall

CD

“ I'm going to miss my aunt Thelma. She was always a ray of sunshine to me. May The Lord bless every life she has touched. I love you Auntie

Carlton Dye - October 22, 2014 at 12:25 PM

“ Simply Elegant Spathiphyllum was purchased for the family of Mrs. Thelma Durham.

October 20, 2014 at 06:12 PM

MR

“ With deepest sympathy for the departing of Thelma. Your family are in my thoughts, cherish your many memories of her. Rely on the scriptures for needed comfort.

Isaiah 25:8 - He will swallow up death forever, And the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces. The reproach of his people he will take away from all the earth, For Jehovah himself has spoken it.

M Robinson - October 20, 2014 at 05:04 PM

“ Cup of Roses Bouquet was purchased for the family of Mrs. Thelma Durham. ”

October 20, 2014 at 03:27 PM