

Thelma Y. Moss

January 26, 1941 - November 24, 2020

Thelma Y. Moss, daughter of the late Charles M. Chisholm and the late Maggie McClain Young, was born Sunday, January 26, 1941, in Fuquay, North Carolina.

After her formal education, Thelma married the love-of-her-life, the late Raper Moss. She retired from First Health, Harrisburg, PA, after thirty-five years of dedicated service. Among Thelma's many hobbies and relaxing interests were arts & crafts, event planning, watching on television her favorite soap operas and reality shows, knitting, decorating her home, shopping, cooking, baking, listening to music and, without a doubt, spending cherished times with her great-grandsons.

On Tuesday, November 24, 2020, while at her Harrisburg home, Thelma transitioned from time to eternity joining her parents, husband, daughter, Rolena Moss, and sisters, Peggy, Betty Chisholm and Adrian Holly.

Thelma's memory will be lovingly cherished in the hearts of her niece, April Chisholm; granddaughters, Danielle Cobb, Brittany Johnson; great-grandsons, Noah Cobb, Marcus Cobb, Kane Johnson; brothers, Anthony Buffington, Rodney Young (Denise); other family members and friends.

“ *Thelma was my sister-in-Law. I visited her in Harrisburg,PA. Rolena and her family were there. I had not seen them for a long time. I had my daughter to drive me there from Philadelphia. We had a nice visit. Thelma was always that beautiful beam of light around our family and we all loved her. I think of her often and the joy she brought to my brother as his wife and to The Moss Family, especially when she introduced us to their 1st born and named her after our Mother (Rolena). Rev.
