

Thiliathia (Logan) Bransford

October 11, 1963 - April 12, 2025

Thiliathia (Logan) Bransford, daughter of the late Fred Logan Sr. and Helen (Benton) Ousley, was born October 11, 1963, in Lexington, (Fayette City) Kentucky.

In 1982, she graduated from Mount Healthy High School in Cincinnati, Ohio, where she was a talented athlete who participated in track and field (hurdles).

Known as “Tea” by family and friends, Thiliathia was a lady of many interests. She loved being outside with her plants and adventuring to new places. However, and most important, Tea dearly loved her grandchildren. She was cheerleader for all their meets and games. A die-hard, like no other, Eagles Fan, Thiliathia had matching shirts, purse, to green brake pads on her truck. Also, a fashion icon, she loved putting together outfits for all seasons. That woman could wear a heel like no other. Tea enjoyed cooking for all occasions, large or small. If she made it, you just knew it was going to be good. She had a laugh that you couldn’t help but laugh at and was hilarious, witty and truly one-of-a-kind in this world.

On April 12, 2025, Thiliathia departed this life while at her home in Enola, PA, at sixty-one years of age.

Her bright light will continue to shine in the hearts of her mother Helen (Benton) Ousley of Cincinnati, OH; ex-husband, Terry Bransford of Cincinnati; daughter, Twyla Logan of Harrisburg, PA; sons, Ardon Bransford (Jess) of Long Island, NY, Jalon Bransford of Carlisle, PA, and Andre Bransford of Enola, PA; brothers, Fred Logan Jr. (Sandra) of Cincinnati, OH, Derrick Logan of Lexington, KY; seven grandchildren, other family members and friends.

“ The memory I can think of Mrs Teea was when I was at Shamika's house visiting. Shamika's mom made food but I didn't know it was for everyone. Mrs Teea said boy if you don't get in the kitchen and get you a plate of food to eat. I was so scared I yes I will. I walked myself into the kitchen and showed her my plate of food.
