

Mr. Thomas N. Stewart

June 3, 1955 - October 30, 2018

Thomas was born Wednesday, June 3, 1955 in North Carolina, son of the late Paul A. Stewart Sr. and the late Verla France Stewart.

Thomas received his formal education in the public schools of Mount Airy, NC. His employment path included five years with the Harrisburg School District and seventeen years with ServiceMaster, Harrisburg, PA. His most enjoyable times were spent supporting his favorite football team, the North Carolina Panthers, wrestling bouts and watching the Western Channel.

At sixty-three years of age, while at the Colonial Park Care Center, Harrisburg, Thomas transitioned from this life on Tuesday, October 30, 2018, joining in eternal life his parents; his wife, Diane Stewart; two brothers, Paul Jr. and Sammy Stewart; and one sister, Lois S. Martin. He leaves to share many special memories his daughter, Alisa Tumer Johnson, son, Thomas "Butter" Tumer Sr., both of Harrisburg; seven siblings, Sue Brown (Rev. Ronald Brown) of Harrisburg, Barbara Gentry (James) of Mocksville, NC, Dorothy Stewart of Harrisburg, Mae Washington of Jamaica, NY, Roger Stewart of York, PA, William Stewart of South Carolina, and Donald Stewart (Nancy) of Lemoyne, PA. His memory and legacy will also be lovingly honored by his three grandsons, Thomas Tumer Jr., Ta`keem Tumer Carter, Ok`Sean Johnson, two granddaughters, Ok`Shana Johnson and Khanyàe Emerson, all of Harrisburg; two great-grandchildren, other family members and friends.

““Neighbor” (what we called him) was always a good one. He could be found sitting on his porch (on 4th Street), watching and waving as the traffic passed. Always big fun and hearty laughter when you were sitting with him; nothing went by him and he let you know it. Prayers on behalf of the Brown, Griffin and Newton families from 4th Street. He'll be missed.
