

Thurston E. Wells Sr.

March 11, 1962 - June 8, 2012

Thurston E. Wells Sr., son of the late Thurston Little and Edith Harper Lewis, was born Sunday, March 11, 1962, in Harrisburg, Pennsylvania.

Thurston received his formal education in the Harrisburg School District and in Watts, California. He was self-employed at a young age and acquired the knowledge to become an auto mechanic beginning his life as jack-of-all trades.

Thurston met and later married Sheree Hodge. As they grew up together and matured, they raised their three children. Thurston had his “good medicine” and his family. He loved to eat. As long as he had, everyone else had as well. He lived life as a loving husband, wonderful father, grandfather and great friend who loved children and enjoyed basketball and baseball.

In Harrisburg, on Friday, June 8, 2012, in his fiftieth year, Thurston was called home to be with his Lord and Savior. He leaves to cherish precious memories his children, Jeannie Hodge, Thurston Wells Jr. and Starr Hodge; his ex-wife, Sheree Wells; father, Donald E. “Domino” Page Sr.; aunt, Evelyn Little; eight grandchildren; host of brothers, sisters, uncles, aunts, cousins and friends. Thurston “Light Bulb” Wells Sr. was a Great Person.

May He Rest In Peace.

Lovingly Submitted, The Family
