“ I worked with Tim at the Department of Health in nursing care facilities. I'll never forget my first day meeting him. He came in loud, dressed to the "T" and late! lol. He was a fun person to work with that had the gift of gab. We had some good times. My sincerest condolences to his family.

“ I worked with Tim back in the 1980s at Harness Horse magazine. He was a fun colleague. Lots of laughs and a hard worker.

We went to lunch a lot and i remember he had a Pontiac Fiero.

I lost touch with him over the years, and always wondered what he was up to

Based on the other comments I read, he was brightening many lives.

Rest in Peace, Tim.

“ This was the year 1968. I was seven and a half years old when I first met Tim. There were a bunch of kids playing tag football on Briggs street. Right on the corner of 16th and Briggs. I lived on Briggs Street and I wasn't allowed to leave the block. I saw these kids playing football so I walked down to where they were playing. I was leaning up against a tree watching. I remember Tim asking me if I want to play and his older brother Steel told me to play on Tim's team. Steel was the QB for both teams( I even got some touches that day) I remember that day like it was yesterday. It was a few days after and Tim came over my house and ask me to come around the corner to play ball/football. That was the first time my mother let me leave the block. Tim was kind and respectful. He always encouraged me. Tim had confidence and didn't back down to no one. He always had good grades all through school. We grew up playing baseball, football and basketball. We rode our bikes and went swimming over at the Hall Manor swimming pool. And when we weren't playing. We sat around talking and dreaming about being John Harris Pioneers. I CAN GO ON AND ON!!! But I just want to say to his siblings-Carol, Dee Dee, Leslie, Bum Bum, and Steel. Sorry for using nicknames. I am so sorry for your loss and it broke my heart when I heard the news. God Bless everyone of you. I hope you all receive the Peace of God which surpasses all understanding. Rest in Peace my friend and I will see you again...P.S. I haven't seen Tim in over thirty yrs and my heart is broken. Steel God Bless you!!! ( Steel you was a role model. I always looked up to you!!! Love you all Jack Butler( Jackie)
