

Towanda Fay Weaver

March 24, 1955 - January 16, 2022

Towanda Fay Weaver, daughter of the late Benjamin Lackey and the late Marcella Weaver, was born Thursday, March 24, 1955, in Harrisburg, PA.

A graduate of John Harris High School, Harrisburg, Towanda pursued career training at UTI Technical Institute, Baltimore, MD. She was employed by Berks Advocates Against Violence, Reading, PA. Always stylishly dressed, Towanda had a passion for fashion as well as reading and writing. She was a member of Victory Outreach Fellowship under the leadership of Pastor Keith Avery.

While at Carolyn's Hospice Residence, Harrisburg, PA, Towanda transitioned from labor to reward on Sunday, January 16, 2022, at sixty-six years of age.

Towanda leaves her love and treasured memories to her two daughters, Marcella D. Weaver of Harrisburg, PA, Torria I. Weaver of Carlisle, PA; her grandchildren, Ryeam J. Weaver, Jariah C. Weaver, Desire Weaver-Solomon, Jameel Belle Jr., all of Carlisle; her siblings, Peggy Morrison, Donald Weaver, Jerol Weaver, Priscilla Harris, Cynthia Weaver, Brenda Lackey, Dennis Lackey, Demetrice Barbour, Dawn Barbour and Arron Lackey, all of Harrisburg; her furry dog grandson, Junebug Chambers; her furry dog granddaughter, Babygirl Weaver; other family members and friends.

“ My dear friend and family. I will miss you sitting on my porch. I will miss walking you through that dark alley making sure you got home safe. We laughed until we realized the sun was about to come up. This summer will not be the same. I'll miss you fay.
