

Mr. Tracy Lamont Williams Sr.

August 31, 1960 - September 16, 2019

Tracy Lamont Williams Sr., son of the late Jessie Washington and the late Barbara Ann Williams, was born Wednesday, August 31, 1960, in Harrisburg, PA.

Tracy graduated from Harrisburg High School, “Cougars,” Class of 1979, and pursued higher educational endeavors by attending Harrisburg Area Community College taking Chief Graduate and Data Processing classes.

Tracy enlisted in the United States Army as well as the Army Reserves; and in July of 1989, he retired from Navy Ships Parts Control Center, Mechanicsburg, PA.

A sports enthusiast, Tracy avidly supported his favorite team, the Washington Redskins. Among his other interests were “collecting-many-things,” to include watches, CD’s, video games and beanie babies. He had a special zest for snicker doodles and his aunt’s macaroni and cheese—eating no other.

On Monday, September 16, 2019, while at the Doctors Community Hospital, Lanham, MD, Tracy Lamont Williams Sr. departed this life after a fifty-nine year challenge with sickle cell anemia joining in eternal life his parents and his wife, April Denise Williams. He leaves to lovingly remember his life and cherish his legacy his children: daughter, Tasha Dickey of Harrisburg, PA, son, Tracy Williams Jr. (Hieu Truong) of Baltimore, MD, daughters, Ginger Williams of Owings Mills, MD, Tiffany Williams of Harrisburg, Taeyanna Williams of San Diego, CA; his grandchildren, Lisette Dickey of Harrisburg, Jabari Stoner, Layla Stoner of Steelton, PA, Vu Coalhouse Truong-Williams of Baltimore; stepson, Tyree Carswell; stepdaughter, Ronice Carswell; sister-in-law; Wanda Carswell; as well as a host of other relatives and friends.

With Love and Appreciation, Submitted by The Family

“ My dearest grandfather you're no longer suffering. The battle is over, you're in the best hands of the Lord himself. You'll always live through me and your grandson who will be here in December maybe November. I love you always. See you in them heaven gates
