“ Hey t, i know it took me so long to type this but its hard to talk about you. Bro remember us, we was a badass team. I remember we curse out everybody and they moms. Bro you were my best friend. This shit is still hitting me I'm crying writing this. I remembered when we were gone together we talked about all our past problems we talked about your children and how you wanted a better life for them. I remember when we were sleeping next to each other and when no one was awake we would have a convo about everything bro i really miss you i just never know how to say it. You cared more than most people and so did i about you i really love you bro this is really hurts but never forget tt and lacye for nothing i love you and i hope you being taken cared of thats a fact be safe up there.

“ Tyanna is my cousin, I've probably only met her a couple of times but i dont remember all that well considering it was years back and i'm only a child. I'd just like to say sorry and hope you guys pull through I know how hard it must be to cope with a loss such as this. I wasn't able to attend the funeral which I am also sorry for I wanted to see her but couldn't go with my mum & dad. Much love, God Bless ❤️ - A “ *Titi you will forever be in my thoughts! You have taught me so much in the last 7 months and for that I'm forever grateful.

She was so full of life, love, and a whole lot of sass. She was perfect the way God created her.
My condolences to her family. May they be assured that before all this unsettledness, she had accepted the Lord. Now she is no longer suffering. T'yanna I love you! Rest easy my girl, in the arms of our Lord.*

“ To Ms. Ina, Kenda, Kosha, Knowledge & family.

When everyone is gone you will need each other. Lean on & support each other through these difficult times. As you may already know it doesn't get any easier, but with each other the pain will ease.

Love you guys,

“ Titi, May your soul be with Our Lord, May Grace, Mercy and Peace be granted to you. We rest in knowing that before the world swept you away, you learned of Jesus and accepted Him into your heart, We can now all be in peace knowing and trusting that The Lord has you in His Kingdom and you will suffer no more. Our prayers now turn to your offspring that The Lord had bless you with, we will continue to keep them in prayer that The Lord will bless and keep them in His sights all the days of their lives and that they too will come to know Him and be blessed in their lives ahead. Rest in Peace Sweet Girl, You are now truly in the presence of Love.

“ Hear my cry, O God; attend unto my prayer. From the end of the earth will I cry unto thee, when my heart is overwhelmed: lead me to the rock that is higher than I. Psalms 61:1-2

To the Brown Family,

Our hearts were deeply saddened to hear of Tyanna's passing, she was a sweet young lady whom our family also loved.

Life.....so fragile, Loss.....so sudden, Heart....so broken,...in the wake of such a loss, we are haunted by things we don't, and may never understand. Yet the solace we seek may not come from answers.

So we look for comfort in the belief of love's everlasting connection.

May that love lift you and hold you close, and give you peace.

There's nothing that can be said that will ease your pain but we just wanted you to know that you and your family are in our thoughts and prayers through this heartbreaking time.

We will miss Tyanna and we will cherish the happy memories we had with her. Please accept our sincere condolences.

“ Dearest T'Maizjah,
We are so sorry for the loss of your baby sister Tyanna, our hearts share your grief, remembering the last time we saw you together at our house, you both embraced each other so tight and cried with tears of joy just from seeing each other, the love you shared just warmed and melted our hearts. So we choose to remember and cherish the beautiful moments we shared with you and your sister growing up.
I know that you and your sister were very close and that her passing will be very hard for you. I'm sure that you are thankful for the years you had together, please know that we are here for you. I am reminded of the Bible passage that says "Blessed are those that mourn for they shall be comforted." I pray that the Lord showers you with strength and support for your family with the loss of your beloved sister.
I hope that you find comfort in holding tight to your memories, lean on your friends for strength, and always remember how much you are cared about. As you grieve, know that we are remembering you and honoring the memory of your sister.
"A sister is a soul mate who is a part of you forever"
With Love and Sympathy,
