

Viola Mae Carter

July 3, 1955 - January 26, 2023

Viola Mae Carter, daughter of Rosella (Latham) Coley and the late Joseph Carter Sr., was born Sunday, July 3, 1955, in Carlisle, PA.

Viola attended William Penn High School and was employed by Penn Credit. She was known to be an inspiration to many, humble, sweet, straight-to-the-point, and she didn't take "no mess." Extremely crafty, Viola loved interior design, cooking, listening to music and gardening. Never to be forgotten, she was an advocate of cleaning—oh yes, you had to keep it neat. Foremost, Viola was very devoted to her family.

In Harrisburg, PA, on Thursday, January 26, 2023, at sixty-seven years of age, Viola transitioned from this life into eternal life joining her father and her brother, Robin Carter.

Viola leaves many loving, amusing and cherished memories to be reminisced by her mother, Rosella (Latham) Coley; daughter, Cassandra Jackson; son, Marlin Jackson Jr.; her siblings, (twin sister) Violet Carter, Joseph Carter Jr., James Carter, Venessa Coley-Stann and Vera Arp; grandson, Imad Taylor; granddaughter, Amari Primus; great-granddaughters, Ta`Riah Evans, Mylah Walker, Kadence Walker and Dream Walker; as well as other family members and friends.
