August 24, 1943 - March 3, 2016

Virginia Belle Reeves

Virginia, affectionately known as "Mungie," the third child of the late Willard R. Harty and Katherine Miller Harty, was born August 24, 1943, in Harrisburg, Pennsylvania. On March 3, 2016, Mungie departed this earthly life at the Penn State Milton S. Hershey Medical Center in Hershey, Pennsylvania.

She received her education in the Central Dauphin School District and graduated from the former Thompson Institute. She was affiliated with St. Paul A.M.E. Church, Oberlin, Pennsylvania.

On June 29, 1961, Mungie was united in holy matrimony to Thomas H. Reeves. Their union was blessed with two daughters, Dawn and Deborah.

During her working career, she was employed by the former Fruehauf Trailer Corporation, Middletown, Pennsylvania, and she retired from Sam's Club, Harrisburg, Pennsylvania. Mungie was known for comforting others with the many meals she graciously prepared for family and friends to enjoy on Sundays, holidays and special occasions. She was an avid sports fan and played in a women's softball league. She was a staunch Harrisburg Cougars, Dallas Cowboys, San Antonio Spurs and Allen Iverson supporter. She also enjoyed reading, playing cards, pokeno and going to various casinos.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her brother, Willard "Billy" Harty. She leaves to celebrate her life and cherish irreplaceable memories: her husband of fifty-four years, Thomas H. Reeves; two daughters, Dawn R. Reeves and Deborah L. R. Waters and her husband Earl Waters, all of Harrisburg; four grandchildren, Dionna J. Reeves, DeMarcus J. Reeves, Taylor R. Waters and Tyrah D. Waters; one great-grandson, Braylen D. R.
