

Virginia Scott

June 26, 1925 - November 28, 2020

Virginia (Fox) Scott, born on June 26, 1925 in Spotsylvania, Virginia, was the third of six children born to the late Joseph and Vernonia (Tyler) Fox.

Virginia attended John J. Wright High School in Spotsylvania, Virginia. She accepted the Lord as her Savior as a teenager at the Beulah Baptist Church in Spotsylvania, Virginia. When she relocated to Steelton, PA, she united with Emanuel Church of God in Christ and was baptized on July 9, 1944.

Virginia was married to Benjamin Scott Sr. for seventy-three years. From their union, there are eight children. She worked as a dishwasher, did domestic work and worked at the tobacco factory in Steelton, PA, before becoming a professional homemaker. She loved to cook, sew, do upholstery, and work puzzles. Not known to many, Virginia could also draw. She watched many of her grandchildren while their parents worked. She did bible study with senior citizens who lived in her complex.

She encouraged us to learn how to care for ourselves. She even taught some of us how to start a fire in a cast iron stove, use a long saw that had two handles, and made sure we stood up for ourselves and each other. She was welcoming and caring to all family and their friends.

Virginia Scott went to sleep on November 28, 2020 to rest until the Lord returns. She was preceded in death by her father, mother and four brothers. Virginia is survived by her husband, Benjamin F. Scott, Sr.; five sons, Eddie (Katherine), Herbie (Mittlean), Purcell (Betty), Joseph (Beatrice), Richard (Penney); three daughters, H. Wendy Scott (Andrew Johnson), Veronica Scott, Marcia Scott-Williams (Nate Williams); stepson, Benjamin F. Scott, Jr. (Margaret); and her younger sister, Ellen Hicks (Minor). Virginia also has twenty-six grandchildren and a host of great-grandchildren, great-great grandchildren, nieces, nephews and cousins.

To the Scott Family,

I am so grateful to have met and loved your awesome Mother. She had one of the sweetest dispositions that I know of. She will be missed. Let us all live to meet her again when our Lord and Savior returns for His faithful servants. Much love to Dad and the Scott clan. Shirley Benton, the Green and Waugh Families

“ Dear Mr. Benjamin and Family,

I am so, so sorry to hear about the passing of Miss Virginia. Unfortunately, I just learned of her death, so please forgive me for the tardiness of this note. Needless to say, we are very sad. She was one of the sweetest of the Wood Street moms, so kind, so caring. You were very fortunate to have her as your mother.

We are keeping Mr. Ben and the entire family in our thoughts and prayers during this holiday season and the days beyond.

*Love and God bless,

“ I have the honor of being Mom Virginia's daughter-in-law. I have always said I have the best in-laws on the planet. No one could ever be a better Mother-in-law than Mom Virginia. She welcomed me into her home with open arms during Christmas 1994 , when I was a complete stranger to her, and I have dearly loved her ever since. She was always warm and welcoming and I loved chatting with her. I fondly remember asking her how she and dad met dad. I so loved hearing their story. As she was telling me that story she would laugh and if you knew her you know it was the sweetest laugh in the world. She warmed my spirit when she laughed. When you visited her home she would always say there's food in the kitchen, help yourself. Honestly, I couldn't wait to sink my teeth in her roasts or baked chicken, stewed tomatoes and rice and gravy not to mention the pound cake. These are such fond memories that I will cherish for the rest of my life. I love you Mom Virginia and will miss you dearly. Thank you for welcoming me into your fold. It was an honor and a pleasure knowing and loving you.

“ We are saddened at the loss of Mrs. Scott. During my visit with Eddie from Columbus, Ohio she and her husband would greet me with a warm smile and nice conversation.

She was kind and possessed wisdom which was seen by all. As we remember her love for Christ and for others, may the Holy Spirit grant us peace and courage until we meet her again " In the earth made new"

Lord come!

“ Marcia & family,
So sorry for the loss of your mother, wife, grandmother, cousin, sister, extended family and friend.. Mrs. Scott has gained her angel wings and surely was welcomed with open arms by family members and friends that have gone before her along with our heavenly father that has prepared a place for her. It's hard when our loved ones are called home but rest assured just as Mrs. Scott is celebrating her reunion with those that have entered the pearly gates before she did she will be waiting and will rejoice when you all meet again. Keep those memories of the time you had together close to your hearts. God bless you all in this difficult time.

“ Mr. Scott and the family
My deepest sympathies go out to all of you for your loss. I never met your wife/mother, if she was anything like Marcia, I know that she was a special, thoughtful and caring person. Although, the earth lost a special person, heaven just gained a new angel. May god bless each of you during this difficult time.
