

Walter B. Thompson

April 10, 1933 - November 28, 2011

Walter B. Thompson "Big Walt," 78, transitioned to eternal life on November 28, 2011. He was born in Harrisburg, son of the late Walter B. Thompson and Margaret Andrews.

A graduate of John Harris High School, he was formerly employed by Yellow Cab Company and as a bus driver for the Harrisburg School District. He retired from Central Penn Air Service and was a member of St. John CME Church.

Surviving are his devoted wife of 52 years, Ethel (Oveide) Thompson; sons, Blaine (Eric) and Omar Thompson, all of Harrisburg.

A Memorial Service will be held at 11 a.m., Saturday, December 3rd, at First Assembly of God, 4100 N. Progress Avenue, Harrisburg, (Phone #: 717- 657-2500). Immediately following the Memorial Service, a repast will be held in the Fellowship Hall of the church.

The family expresses its appreciation for all acts of concern and sympathy during the illness and passing of Mr. Thompson. Special thank-you's are extended to

PinnacleHealth-Harrisburg Hospital ER and the 10th Floor Staff, MSICU (Dr. Hoffman and staff); Advantage Ambulance Crew; Fresenius Medical Care

through 8 years of dialysis; First Assembly of God Church Family (Pastor Terry Lamer) for the encouraging cards regularly sent; St. John CME Church (Nelson A. Robinson, III, Senior Pastor) where Walter was a supportive member though unable to attend; the nurses and staff of Bayada Home Care; Dr. Kenneth Conner; and Larry K. Birriel, DPM, at Zlotoff, Gilfert, Gold and Associates, and staff.